IWAR COMMISSIONER: SUE PLEXX

She rose from a mic holder in the BRL to Reporter to BRL Commish to BWL Commish has returned to the IWAR after a hiatus to helm the largest version of the IWAR yet.

COVER: SKULLFIRE BURNS BRIGHT

The long reigning BBL King of Hardcore, Skullfire won the 22nd Clash of Champions to earn a shot at the IWAR World champion, Nature Boy Phil Landers (CWL), who also had a good run of his own. The classic confrontation of smooth technical skills versus all-out brawling nearly went the distance, but Skullfire's grit won out. There's an exclusive interview with the new IWAR World champion in this issue!

WHAT IS THE IWAR NETWORK?

The IWAR Network formed in 2012 as an oasis for the creative style of play. This led to the "IWA Revolution" (IWAR) that built a farm league for rookies to provide better players, bigger stars and innovative Commissioners that changed the game. If you like action-packed leagues with a lot to be involved with, then the IWAR Network is the place for you to compete and have fun.

REVOLUTION CHAMPIONSHIP

“King” Cowboy Schlitz (WTL) ©

vs. The Heartthrob Dan Corvette (RTL) & Ravishing Rex Chambers (WTL)

Three of the top stars of 2025 battled it out for Schlitz Revolution title, but this turned into a sloppy slugfest that took out the first ref in a Monkey Flip mishap! Later Chambers shoved Corvette into Schlitz and rolled him up to win the belt!

IWAR WORLD SIX-MAN CHAMPIONSHIP

The Regulators (James Carnage, Jesse Tombstone & Blackjack Robertson) (ACW) ©

Vs. The Buckshot Brothers: Bo, Billy & Benji (WTL)

The fans were solidly behind the Buckshots and they gave the champs all they handle, but Ryan Patrick was working overtime to keep the belts with his Regs. Distracting the Buckshots and the ref just long enough for the Regs use their branding iron to clothesline Benji and ditch it before the ref caught it and unaware, made the three count to seal the win as the champs retained.

IWAR WORLD TAG TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

Shotgun James Carnage & Texas Jesse Tombstone (ACW) ©

Vs. Justin Grace & Chase Grace (IWL)

The Regs were well acquainted with the Amazing's from their time in the IWL, but when they double dropkicked Robertson into his trio partners! Ryan Patrick is outraged and distracts the ref as Jesse picks up a branding iron and clobbers Justin! He's down! Chase gets hit in the gut and James sets up for the Sandstorm as Jesse yells at the ref. Carnage lifts Chase up, but hold on, sliding in the ring are the McFlaherty Brothers! They hit the Sign of the Cross on James! He's out cold! Jesse yells at the ref who doesn't see Brendan and Ruairi slide out and Chase covers for the 1... 2... 3! The Graces defeat the Regs as the McFlaherty's get some revenge!

IWAR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

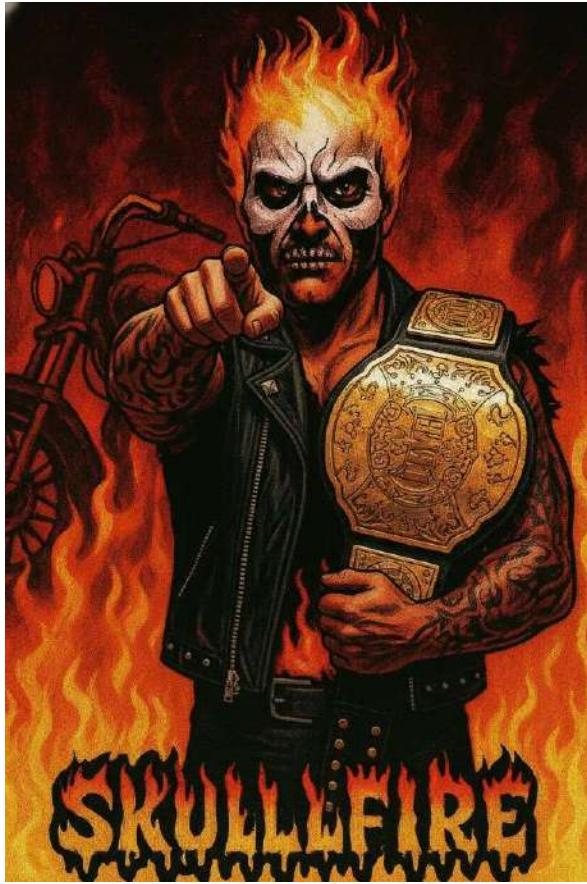

Nature Boy Phil Landers (CWL) © Vs. Skullfire (BBL)

A battle of two long-tenured champions, took off quickly as the challenger stormed the ring, foregoing the traditional introductions and clotheslined the Nature Boy over the top rope while he's still in his bedazzled robe! Landers tries to shake off the cobwebs, but Skullfire is on him quick and keeps up the punishment. The fans are really getting behind the hardcore icon as he tears into Phil, who puts a halt to the attack with the never-fail move, he rakes the eyes! Landers rams Skullfire into the ring post and rolls into the ring, urging referee Willy Pinnem to count quickly. The crowd cheers as Skullfire makes it in before the ten count, but he is pummeled by stomps and wild forearms. The Nature Boy ends Skullfire into the ropes and misfires on a clothesline, but Skullfire comes back off the other side and flattens the champ with a lariat! Skullfire feeds off the crowd and goes for a brainbuster, but Landers, blocks it and hits a DDT! He covers; will the champ escape? 1... 2... NO! Skullfire powers out and the champ is shocked. The Nature Boy goes for a sleeper, but Skullfire fights it off and rams Landers into corner and hits a Cutter! The champ is down, is the challenger going to cover? No, Skullfire goes to the top and hits a Big Splash! The ref counts, 1... 2... 3!!! We have a new IWAR World champion!

1-on-1 IWAR CHAMPION

With Dapper Dan Dee

Dapper Dan Dee here and I'm thrilled to have a chance to interview the new IWAR World champion, SKULLFIRE!

Dapper Dan Dee:

Fans, we are joined by the new IWAR World champion, from the Blood Bath league, Skullfire. That was a great victory over the Nature Boy Phil Landers, whose reign started when he defeated Mike Freaking Mason in May of last year. How does it feel to hold that belt?

Skullfire:

You know Dapper Dan, I experienced quite a few major title wins in my career, including both the Bronze fed and Gold fed titles but as great as those were, there's nothing that beats the excitement and pride of winning the IWAR World title, the most prestigious title in the whole game imo.

Dapper Dan Dee:

You are very familiar with long reigns. You held the BBL's King of Hardcore championship since December of 2024, so how will your experience translate now that you are the champ and the one everyone is gunning for?

Skullfire:

I've had to win and defend in triple threat matches and crossed paths with many different styles of wrestlers so I guess that's a pretty good warm up for what's coming next. I'm fully aware it will most likely be even tougher now facing top dogs from the best leagues.

Dapper Dan Dee:

What is it about your "hardcore" mindset that makes you so hard to beat?

Skullfire:

I go all-in every time I get into the ring. It will most likely shorten my career by a few months but with all the successes I had, it's definitely worth it.

Dapper Dan Dee:

Now that you are on the top, you'll be defending that IWAR World championship in a few months, so what message do you want to send to your next challenger?

Skullfire:

He or they will have to kill me to take that belt away from me.

IWAR World championship – The IWAR Network was established to celebrate the storyline style of play and each of the league's Commissioner's champions face off in 8-man contest where the champion with the highest 2-cycle average will earn the next title shot at Imagiclash. (est. 2013)

IWAR Revolution championship – Created by the crooked Commission, Johnny Revolution to celebrate his purchasing controlling interest in the IWA, it's an ode to mayhem. The champion defends against at least 2 challengers in a Triple Threat match at each ImagicClash. The challengers are made up of a mix of event winners, top points earners and for other random reasons.

IWAR World Tag team championship – The IWAR has long been known for it's tough tag team competition and some of the champions have held both the IWAR and IWA championships. The challengers are made up of; (est. 2016) Spring: highest Tag team points earned in previous year. Summer: winners of the Marano Memorial Tag Team tournament Fall: winners of the Lethal Lottery Tag Team tournament Holiday: winners of the Tag Team Derby

IWAR World Trios championship – There have been a number of dominant six-man teams and any argument over who is the greatest will include a team that held these titles at some point. The challengers are made up of; (est. 2016) Spring: highest Tag team points earned in previous year. Summer: winners of the Lethal Lottery: the Trifecta tournament Fall: winners of the Elite Trios Tournament. Holiday: winners of the Triple D Cup Trios Tournament

Losing Catfish Rob Ratliff a few weeks ago has hit the IWA hard and I know there will be events, tournaments and titles that will be named as a way to honor Rob, but in my desire to do so, I wanted to expand it. You see, back in 2014 when Rob and Tim Clark joined the NWL as IWA rookies, they founded the Disciples of Doom stable along with fellow rookie Jason Frymier. They had a blast and brought their creative mischief into the BRL and it spread across the IWA. They were tight and collaborated on feuds, flows and Commissionerships as they shared their controlled mayhem with players with promos, reports and YouTube shows where they shared ideas and a lot of laughs.

Last year, Tim's passing shocked us because he wasn't sick and it came out of nowhere. His memory is being honored in the Action Packed League, where Tom Flescher's Tim Clark Memorial Tag Team Tournament drew in players from across the IWA in order to compete for the honor of winning.

After Tim's passing, I stepped in to team with Rob and Jason in the BRL and got to know them better throughout a tough year. Rob was thrilled to have his rookie; Mad Max Red Wolf win the BRL title and the Metropolitan title and his other BRL wrestler, Squeakums the Clown was atop the BRL Wrestler of the Year rankings. Rob was experiencing a lot of pain as he battled numerous diseases and facing another dire diagnosis, but despite all of those challenges, he was always in good spirits, positive and generous. He sent one of his 'Clemmer' belts to Derek Leftridge because he knew he really wanted one. When Rob shared that he needed to cut back on his IWA because he needed to save up for his winter heating oil bill, we pitched in to help him out. Some of us talked about a GoFundme to help with his bills, but we lost Rob just a week later.

My way of honoring the memories of Catfish Rob and Tim Clark is to shelve the Lethal Lottery Trifecta Trios tournament which is really a double of the original and create The Catfish/Clark Classic. It will be a six-man tournament to reflect their love of sharing victories with others. It will be a free event to recognize that being able to be join in the fun of an IWAR event should be open to all, especially those who struggle financially. The winners of this event will go on to challenge the IWAR World Six-man champions. I am still deciding if this event will be single elimination, knockout, survival or some other format, but on the next two pages I have listed the active trios in the IWAR leagues, but if you don't see yours, let me know and I'll get them in. This event will start with the January 6th so don't delay.

Thank you to everyone who has helped us with our memorials to Catfish Rob. The IWA, Alex G. for hosting the Tubecast memorial and for everyone who knew Rob that has reached out and shared with us. -Matt Riley
