

THE IWA REPORT

Volume 31, Number 11 • August 2026

 Still to come are the number of times wrestlers/managers retained titles.*

Johnny B Says

Former player Zach Gargus shared some extremely sad news with us: the IWA community lost manager Patrick Brooks on August 16th. Although he returned for a brief stint a handful of years ago, he was mostly active in our early years, so the only records I have of his probable mountain of achievements are that he won the U.S. Six-woman titles in the Winter 1998 cycle; the Iron Federation strap and a third of the World Six-man honors in the May 1998 tour; the Ladies' U.S. Championship the following cycle (June); the Ladies' World Tag belts in the January 1999 round; the Ladies' U.S. singles and tag titles the cycle after that (February), as well as holding the Canadian Championship a third consecutive time; a third Ladies' U.S. belt in the May 1999 tour; the Queen of the Ring crown and the World Six-woman straps in the September 1999 cycle; a fourth Ladies' U.S. Championship and a return to U.S. Six-woman glory in the December 1999 cycle; a repeat performance the following round (Holidays), meaning a fifth Ladies' U.S. title and the U.S. Six-woman belts for a third time; and in the December 2021 cycle, his HEARTTHROB: John Lane of the NWL finished third in the Alberta tournament at Imagimania 36: Oh, Canada! He claimed the aforementioned women's gold with wrestlers from the HOH and (primarily) JOCKEY CLUB stables.

Patrick was only 51 when he passed. He is survived by his grieving widow, his father, his brother James (who I believe played along with him in the '90s), and many other family members and friends who have had to say goodbye to him far too soon. Please read his obituary at mccaffertyfuneralhomes.com/obituary/patrick-charles-brooks and observe a moment of silence for a fellow wrestling fan and really nice guy.

(Farewell, old friend. Your time in this life was much too short, so we're all the more honored that you chose to share some of it with us. Your memory will live on in the IWA history books and in the many friendships you forged along the way to all that gold.)

And now for some much-needed good news: thanks to a suggestion from longtime SHL Commissioner Eric Jones, when a league reaches bulletin #500, every active wrestler in that bulletin (those who sign at least one singles match) will receive a bonus star. Those who score 495 or better will still earn the usual reward of one star, so they will receive two stars that cycle. Thank you, Eric, for the idea, as well as the many, many years of service to your fellow players in the Super Hero League!

Manager Donald Henry now has an even dozen World Championships in his trophy case, Michael Eaves picked up his seventh U.S. title win, and IWA Legend Terrence Boyd is wearing his 21st King of the Ring crown in the last 114 cycles — that's nearly one out of every five!

The results of the Specialty Championships will be published next cycle.
Watch for them!
