

THE IWA REPORT

Volume 31, Number 13 • September 2026

 Still to come are the number of times wrestlers/managers retained titles.*

Johnny B Says

Manager ~TZ~ has done the seemingly impossible: he's kept the IWA World Six-man Championships in his possession an absolutely staggering 100 consecutive cycles! As many of you already know, he's one of those players who excels at every facet of the game: choosing just the right holds in just the right order at just the right time, writing creative trash talk for his extensive array of characters that builds on what his rivals said rather than existing in a vacuum, and even going the extra miles (with an s) of serving as League Commissioner to his fellow players, publishing an annual magazine that helps the hard work of his fellow commissioners reach a wider audience, and maintaining a website focused on the game's history for the stats lover in all of us.

But this is pro wrestling, so you know the former champion is chomping at the bit to reclaim his title, and here, that juggernaut is the legendary Frank Jay Belcher III, another IWA all-arounder whose own World Six-man streak ended at a very brag-worthy 27 in the June 2021 cycle. His current run clocks in at a full year's worth (17 tours), and also in hot pursuit are the king Belcher dethroned, Caleb Crawdad, as well as Michael Cook, Michael Drake, Rich Reilly, Solomon Shaw, and Derek Tuttle. In other words, don't get too comfortable, ~TZ~!

Finally, Imagimania is right around the corner, and we don't have to cut any corners because there are no budgetary concerns this year... in fact, up to 20 competitors will become instant millionaires! Watch for the exciting details next cycle!
