

THE IWA REPORT

Volume 31, Number 14 • October 2026

 Still to come are the number of times wrestlers/managers retained titles.*

Johnny B Says

Manager Wade Reinhard recently informed us that IWA Legend Pete Kolomichuk of Ohio tragically passed away on June 14th. He was only 50 years old.

A longtime player dating back to our early years, his winnings from this millennium included the King of the Ring crown in the June 2005 cycle, the women's counterpart in the Spring 2019 cycle, and the Metropolitan title in the October 2019 cycle. He also won the IWA-wide Northern regional belt in the March 2007 cycle and the Central strap in the September 2019 cycle. In the February 2005 cycle, he claimed the National honors with wrestlers from two different regions, and in the November cycle of that same year, he did it again! Lastly, he was part of the winning group in Stablecade 2019 after generously signing up more than a dozen wrestlers (every entry benefitted manager Jim Ripka, who had suffered a stroke).

One of the many ways he shared his time and creativity with our community was reopening the Iron Glove League after the original had closed, serving his fellow players as Commissioner. Outside of the game, he brought happiness and entertainment to others through his work at haunted houses in the IWA's little corner of the globe, and as owner and operator of Jurassic Mountain Family Fun Center, a dinosaur-themed tourist attraction.

Pete's employees and customers will surely miss him, but no one has suffered a greater loss than his wife of over 30 years, his two sons, his granddaughter, and the other close family members he left behind. I encourage everyone to read his obituary at medina-gazette.com/news/469337/pete-kolomichuk-may-19-1976-june-14-2026 to learn what a special person he was, and thus, why his passing is such a terrible loss to so many.

Rest in peace, IWA Legend.

In far happier news, Imagimania is back and far better than last year. Each of the 20 available titles is worth a cool million in imaginary money, and another $2.2 million has been set aside for the second- and third-place finishers to split. Send us the completed entry forms — either the physical copies included with your league bulletins or the digital versions from the Results page of our website — with your matches and strategies for the upcoming November cycle, which begins on November 9th.
